COUNTRY INFO

RWANDA

Rwanda is a country in East-Central Africa. Kigali is the capital and largest city. It's one of the smallest countries on the African mainland, but it is also a standout. Rwanda is undergoing a modern rebirth that's inspiring and fascinating to watch. Known as the land of 1000 hills, Rwanda's stunning scenery and warm, friendly people offer unique experiences in what is called Africa's cleanest country. Though best known for its 1994 genocide, in which nearly one million Rwandans were killed in ethnic clashes, this sad history helped to forge the Rwanda of today. It's a shining example of human resilience and an amazing place to visit.

UGANDA

Uganda is a landlocked-country in East-Central Africa. Kampala is the capital and largest city. With beautiful landscapes, excellent wildlife watching, a plethora of adventure activities, welcoming locals, and a vibrant nightlife, Uganda packs a lot into one small country. It's home to the source of the Nile, the world's longest river; Africa's largest lake (Lake Victoria); Africa's highest mountain range (the Rwenzoris); and it's one of 13 countries the equator passes through. Along with Rwanda and DR Congo, it's one of the three places in the world to see mountain gorillas in the wild. This understated gem makes for a great time in Africa.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Do I need a passport?
A passport book is required for travel to both Rwanda and Uganda. Your passport must be valid for 6 months after your arrival date and have at least 2 blank pages.

Do I need a visa?
US citizens are required to have tourist visas for both Uganda and Rwanda. There are options for a single entry, multiple entry, or joint visa. If you are not a US citizen, check for your country requirements.

- Rwanda allows all visitors to obtain a visa on arrival. The cost is $50 USD (single entry) or $70 USD (multiple entry).
- Uganda requires travelers to apply for an e-visa online. There are several single and multiple entry types available, ranging in price from $50-$150 USD.
- The East African Tourist Visa (EATV) allows multiple entries into Uganda, Rwanda and Kenya for 90 days and costs $100. The EATV must be obtained in the country where your travel will begin.

We recommend the EATV for ease and practical reasons. Since our tour begins in Rwanda, you would need to obtain the EATV there. You may apply for the East Africa Tourist Visa (EATV) online, upon arrival, or from Rwanda Diplomatic missions abroad.

Do I need any vaccinations or medications?

- Rwanda: The Yellow Fever vaccination is NOT required for visitors UNLESS traveling or transiting from a Yellow Fever endemic or outbreak country.Uganda: The Yellow Fever vaccine is REQUIRED for all visitors and you must present a Yellow Card as proof of vaccination upon arrival.

Because both Rwanda and Uganda are high-risk malaria countries, you may consider taking a malaria prophylaxis. This is optional and not required.
