COUNTRY INFO

Morocco, officially the Kingdom of Morocco, is located in North Africa. It has coastlines on the Mediterranean Sea to the north and the Atlantic Ocean to the west, and land borders with Algeria and the disputed territory of Western Sahara. Morocco gained independence from France in 1956 and has witnessed significant urban transformations and socio-economic shifts post-independence. The capital is Rabat and the largest city is Casablanca.

Morocco's population is about 38 million. Arabs and the indigenous Amazigh (aka Berber) comprise nearly 90% of the population. Moroccan culture is a mix of Arab, Amazigh, African and European culture. Islam is both the official and predominant religion, with 99% of the population being Muslim. Arabic and Amazigh are the official languages. French and Moroccan Arabic are also widely spoken.

Casablanca is the economic and business center. It is located on the Atlantic coast in the central-western part of Morocco. It's the country's chief port, as well as the primary naval base for the Royal Moroccan Army. The Hassan II Mosque, which is the 2nd largest mosque in Africa, is the city's main tourist attraction. Other popular sites include the Corniche, the Old Medina, Arab League Park, Mohammed V Square and Morocco Mall.

Marrakesh is one of four Imperial cities of Morocco and its 4th largest city, lying west of the foothills of the Atlas mountains. It comprises a new town and an old fortified city which is a UNESCO World Heritage. This old medina quarter contains the Jemaa el-Fnaa square, a large number of souks (markets), the Kutubiyya Mosque, and many other historic and cultural sites. Other popular sites include the Jardin Majorelle/Yves Saint Laurent Museum, El Badi Palace, Bab Agnaou, Ben Youssef Madrasa and Menara Gardens. Marrakesh is a major tourist destination and its railway connects the city to Casablanca and northern Morocco.

Rabat is the 7th largest city of Morocco, located on the Atlantic Ocean. The heart of the city consists of three parts: the Medina (old town); the Oudayas and Hassan; and the Atlantic Ocean. Rabat is also an Imperial city and its medina is a UNESCO World Heritage site. Other historic sites include the Kasbah of the Udayas, city walls of Chellah, Mausoleum of Mohammed V, Hassan Tower, and the Rabat Lighthouse and fortress of Borj Sirat. Several trains connect the city to Casablanca.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

When should I arrive?

We suggest that you arrive by 2:00 pm on January 13, 2026, in order to get checked in to the hotel and refreshed before our Welcome Dinner. If you decide to arrive a day or two early, we recommend staying at our arrival hotel. We can assist with booking additional night(s) and bill you separately or you can book on your own.

When should I leave?

The tour will officially end on January 19, 2026 and all attendees will be transported from Rabat to Casablanca following breakfast. You should plan to leave after 5:00pm to allow ample time for transport and airport check-in.

Are there any important considerations for this trip?

This will be a fast-paced trip with travel between 3 cities. There will be a lot of walking, so attendees should be fairly active and mobile for the best experience. There will also be big crowds and lots of traffic, so patience, a fun spirit, and a “go with the flow” attitude are a must. For the AFCON 2023 games, there were more than 1 million attendees during the one-month tournament. Even more are projected in Morocco, so expect packed hotels, restaurants, and other venues. While we will try our best to be timely and organized, there may be delays or inconveniences that are beyond our control.
